

Basic Detail Report

Botas

Date

18th - 19th centuries

Medium

Leather, metal, buckle, rawhide laces

Description

Small, maybe made for a child or woman. Two layers of leather that extend from below the knee to over the shoe. Stitched designs on top continue down the front and side. On foot portion there are appliqued and stitched floral designs. Two buckles with straps, and three rawhide ties. There is a decorative rawhide bobble at the top, and a double row of metal tacks or studs at the side. Measurement is from foot strap to top. Length of the shoe portion is 21cm/8.5 in.

Dimensions

Overall: 14 3/4 in. (37.5 cm)