

Alebrije, Two-Headed Dragon

Date

c. 1990

Primary Maker

Linares Family

Medium

Papier-mâché, wire, paint

Description

The standing figure of a two-headed dragon has large, curved wings and a long, curling tail. The heads have pointy ears, two green horns, and wide-open red mouths with protruding tongues. All parts are painted in patterns of green, red, black, orange, yellow, and white designs.

Dimensions

24 × 24 × 20 in. (60.96 × 60.96 × 50.8 cm)