

Basic Detail Report

Dagger / ARMAMENT T&E / Personal Symbol Knife with sheath

Date

c. 1950

Medium

metal, wood, water, buffalo horn

Description

Metal blade with decorative, circular carving on both sides. Hilt depicts a dancing apsaras carved out of horn with metal inlay for detail. The sheath is made of wood and horn bound together by three metal bands. There is decorative metal inlay and a trapezoidal peep hole through which the blade is visible when in the sheath.

Dimensions

Overall: 4 3/4 in. (12 cm)