Description

"Crown of Thorns" picture frame with an approximately 2-1/4" x 3-3/4" opening. The frame is built up of narrow chip carved sticks of wood, puzzle-pieced together. The four corners of the frame stick out and up, and are filled in, originally making a large square arrow or pyramidal form overlaying the top and sides of the slightly lower frame. At this time three of the four corner tops and tips are broken off.
