

Basic Detail Report

Noah's Ark

Date

ca. 1960

Primary Maker

Jose Mondragon

Medium

wood, rawhide, adhesive

Description

Cordova style wood carving of animal figure group/Noah's Ark scene. Mondragón was born on the fourth of August, the feast day of St. Dominic. Around his hometown of Cordova, he was known as "José Domingo" in honor of his patron saint. An accident in the 1950s forced Mondragón to give up farming, and he devoted his time instead to carving rosaries, animals, and santos (saints).

Dimensions

12 × 27 1/16 × 10 1/2 in. (30.4801 × 68.7389 × 26.6701 cm)