mid-20th century

Primary Maker

Artist not recorded

Medium

Wool and/or acrylic fibers, metal coins, cotton

Description

Multicolored knit bag has fringes in alternating colors (blue, red, green, pink and yellow) around the outer sides and bottom, and rows of lightly tarnished silver colored coins sewn on one side of the bag - one row on the generally oval shaped top half, and three rows on the trapezoidal bottom half. The bag narrows at the "waist" where a small flap (a protruding inner pocket) is located. Below the flap is a finely woven string tie with a pompom on one end. A broken, woven strap is attached at the top sides, a black strip of fabric tied onto one half.
