

Trapelakucha

Date

ca. 1880

Medium

Silver

Description

The pendant, worn as pectoral adornment, has a chain of flattened brackets that link open rectangular pieces from which a cruciform pendants hangs. There are a series of disks suspended from the arms of the cross by rings. The top of the chain has a shell termination with a perforation for hanging.

Dimensions

11 13/16 × 2 3/8 × 1/8 in. (30 × 6 × 0.25 cm)