

Porcupine with Pencil Quills

Primary Maker

Artist not recorded

Medium

Wood, painting, glue, wood chips

Description

A brown porcupine consisting of a brown wooden base figure with wood chips strewn all over the body and then many pencil-shaped white tipped pieces of wood inserted into the base to form the quills. The eyes appear to be marbles.

Dimensions

17 5/16 × 19 11/16 × 33 1/16 in. (44 × 50 × 84 cm)