

Matraca with Crucifixion Scene

Date

1990

Primary Maker

Jimmy E. Trujillo

Medium

light yellow thin wood, metal, small off-white leather tassel

Description

Large matraca, or a wooden spinning rattle/noise-maker with a carved crucifixion scene on the top. A tiny angel is filling a chalice from Jesus's side wound, while a figure praises with their hands raised. "Inri" carved in top right. Underside has another scene carved depicting symbolic objects of Jesus: flagellation pillar, three nails, a tilted cross, crossed spear and torch, as well as the cave with the rock.

Dimensions

3 × 9 1/2 × 12 in. (7.62 × 24.13 × 30.4801 cm)