

Mayan glyph brooch

Date

1938-1971

Primary Maker

Bernice Goodspeed

Medium

Silver

Description

Silver brooch of pre-Columbian design. Brooch made up of an oval with two spirals on the top edge (each going in a different direction) and piece with a scalloped edge on the right side. The inside of the oval has a small ledge along one side and a ball on the other.

Dimensions

$\frac{7}{8} \times 1 \frac{3}{16} \times \frac{1}{4}$ in. ($2.3 \times 3 \times 0.7$ cm)