Date

ca. 1900

Medium

Wool, cotton, gold metallic thread

Description

The fine, cream wool vest has intricate floral and geometric patterns created with couched gold thread embroidery covering most it. Tassles fall from front rondels and eighteen hand-wrapped buttons edge the front opening and back hem. The vest has a very unusual and beautifully rolled collar. The sides of the vest are not sewn perhaps because it was never finished or that it was taken apart.
