

Basic Detail Report

Rider and Goat

Date

ca. 1960, staff

Medium

ceramic, tempera paint, gold leaf

Description

Hand-built ceramic sculpture of a rider on a goat. It is slip-coated with a chalk substance and painted with tempera paint. The male figure wears a yellow shirt and brown trousers with black boots, and wears a red hat with green buttons. He rides on the back of a white goat with green horns and green circles decorating its body. There are also small red dots and the goat has orange garters. Small bits of gold leaf are seen on the horns and on the man's shoulders.

Dimensions

overall: 10.9 CM H X 6.2 CM W X 8.8 CM D