

Oval brooch with coral and turquoise

Date

Mid-20th century

Primary Maker

Matl

Medium

Silver, coral, turquoise

Description

This brooch is comprised of a silver body, red coral and turquoise accents, with an overall oval shape. The outer circle of the piece has rounded coral pieces inlaid in silver with a silver piping on the outer edge. The next row in is a circle of reticulated round silver details connecting the outer edge to the inner structure of the piece. The next row is another set of rounded red coral pieces set in a silver scalloped pattern. The very center piece is an oval cut turquoise piece that is inlaid in silver, and fastened with a twisted design of silver piping. The back of the brooch has a straight pin with a closure mechanism.

Dimensions

1 3/16 × 1 3/8 × 5/16 in. (3 × 3.5 × 0.75 cm)