

Basic Detail Report

Mancerina and Cup

Date

Mid 18th - mid 19th centuries

Medium

Ceramic

Description

Cup and saucer for chocolate, glossy white ceramic with floral design in blue and yellow with green foliage. The saucer is scallop-shaped with a flower painted in each bump on the edge of the shell, and a garland trailing down toward the center and base of the shell. The cup holder in the center of the saucer is pierced with a row of oval holes and small round holes above and below them. There are yellow flower buds between the oval holes, and a blue rim on the cup holder. The separate cup has four flowers with blue petals (dots) and yellow centers, and a blue rim. The flowers on the cup are not painted in the same style as those on the saucer. The underside of the saucer has a silver paper sticker with "Muy noble y artistica Ceramica de Alcora." There is also an inscription, in blue, which reads "generalitat valenciana," "consellería de cultura, educació i ciencia."

Dimensions

Overall: 2 5/8 x 2 3/4 in. (6.7 x 7 cm)