Basic Detail Report

Alebrije, Two-Headed Dragon

Date

c. 1990

Primary Maker

Linares Family

Medium

Papier-mâché, wire, paint

Description

The standing figure of a two-headed dragon has large, curved wings and a long, curling tail. The heads have pointy ears, two green horns, and wide-open red mouths with proturuding tongues. All parts are painted in patterns of green, red, black, orange, yellow, and white designs.

Dimensions

 $24 \times 24 \times 20$ in. $(60.96 \times 60.96 \times 50.8 \text{ cm})$