Description

hovers in air at figure's right, palm at left., (right of panel), two wavy streamers hang from elbows. Tiled floor painted into lower third of panel. Colors much darkened, will not clean with any solvents tried. Condition of yeso excellent. Previous restorer had used paint remover and left it on surface so that a milky scum covered panel. This was cleaned off, panel waxed. (March 1953).
