Description

Figure stands on long bare legs, has red tunic, wreath of roses on head, long sharp nose with lively facial expressions. Holds original painted wooden fish on string in one hand, a small feather duster tied to a staff with cloth (millinery) white flowers and piece of a rosary. Two pointed and gessoed wooden objects, half rounds, on base, look like female breasts but are meant to typify the eyes of the fish in the story of Tobias and the Angel.
