Description

San Pascual, dressed in green tunic and short cape, kneels in front of a kiva fireplace that has a micaceous pitcher sitting on a trivet. Hanging on the wall behind him are two wooden spoons, a small cross with a diamond and conical attachments, and a red chile ristra. Above him is a window with wooden bars and vigas on the ceiling. The wall is a pale gold. The border is grey with a series of three white dots connected by wavy black lines. The edge is not painted. Vertical defects in the grain of wood gives the appearance of hairline cracks around San Pascual and in the top half of the upper left hand corner.
