

Basic Detail Report

Mountain Goat

Primary Maker

Joe Ortega

Medium

Wood, paint, glue

Description

Standing two-horned female mountain goat painted white, gray, and brown with a few black touches mainly on tail, chest, and face. Also some white areas on legs, front and back sides of body, and around eyes and nose. Eyes are black with white circles. Both ears have been broken off and one has been reattached. One horn has been broken off and lost. Much of the paint has been worn off of both horns.

Dimensions

14 5/8 × 5 1/8 × 16 1/8 in. (37.2 × 13 × 41 cm)