Red Ball Cafe

Date

1990

Primary Maker

Walter Baca

Medium

Cotton, colored pencils and ink

Description

Drawing on a square, white handkerchief. Image of a two-storey building, with a sign that says, "RED BALL" above the door. Drawing is primarily done with black lines, but pink is used for the detail of the building. The front facade has two large, round windows on either side of the door. In front of the building is a car, a convertible with the top down, which appears to be from the 1950s.
