Description

Central image is of the Madonna on background of sun rays and stars in dark blue sky. "Haz tu Parte" inscribed in purple ribbon above her head. She wears a green mantle, stripped face mask, and holds a square object in her hands. Self framed in a light color with two roses sprouting from each corner. Carmen Abelleira created this contemporary image of the Virgin of Guadalupe. She explains her work, saying "La Virgen is asking us to do our part by implementing the proven effective rituals of hand washing and mask wearing. It is about faith coupled with practical actions and compassionate precautions" (from exhibition label text).
