

Basic Detail Report

Indo-Persian Mace

Date

1781 - 1925

Medium

metal

Description

The mace is a smooth pole with a head at one end, which screws off. The head is intricately incised with floral designs as well as narrative depictions of figures. There is also script present throughout the decoration. Head is hollow and screwed to the shaft. Note: Head screws off.

Dimensions

Overall: 40 3/16 in. (102 cm)